

Lindy Honored with Penn Future Award

Lindy Property Management, a pioneer in solar energy use in multi-family housing, was honored recently with a Green Power Award by Penn Future. Held at The ACE Center, the environmental watchdog organization recognized leaders who blaze the trail toward a cleaner and healthier Pennsylvania. Rushforth Solar and Lindy have partnered on several successful projects in the region including Academia Suites and Longwood Manor among several others. Projects have reduced costs and energy usage exponentially.
