

You are invited... Friday, July 30, 2010, 11 AM

Please join Rushforth Solar & Lindy Properties for the latest Solar Hot Water System Dedication in South Philly

➤ See award winning Gateway Towers & Enclave's Clubhouse

The Clubhouse at the Enclave is a showplace of modern art, reflecting the work of the late Sam Maitin and architect Sam Olshin along with the inspiration and vision of Philip Lindy.

Designed to "uplift the spirit" and inspire the users, the building is something special to see. The community overlooks the 18-hole Franklin Roosevelt Public Golf Course and offers access to a new Social Club, pool, sauna and 2 state-of-the-art fitness centers, with laundry on every floor.

➤ Join us for "Fresh Fruit Friday" at the Enclave Clubhouse

➤ Come PLAY!* Alan Lindy invites you to swim, play tennis and/or use the sauna.

➤ Help support federal Clean Energy & Green Jobs legislation

US Senate faces an important Energy and Climate bill; learn more: http://www.ucsusa.org/global_warming/ or <http://www.pennfuture.org/content.aspx?MenuID=17&SectionID=119> - http://www.ucsusa.org/news/press_release/senate-climate-change-reid-0426.html?utm_source=SP&utm_medium=SP-head&utm_campaign=SP-head-climate-bill-07-23-10

Click here to get directions from your location to Gateway Towers & the Enclave
3800 Gateway Drive (previously Sheaff Lane), Philadelphia, PA 19145

From Route I-95: 95 South to Exit 17 (Broad Street); At bottom of ramp bear right; Go to 3rd traffic light and make a left (Pattison Avenue). Gateway Towers is 8 blocks up on the left before light at Penrose Ave.

From Center City: Take 76 East to 291 (Penrose Avenue). Make a left at traffic light (Penrose Ave). Gateway Towers is 1/2 block on the right, immediately after going under 2nd underpass.

From Center City (Broad Street): Take Broad St South to Pattison Ave. Make a right on Pattison. Gateway Towers is 8 blocks up on the left before light at Penrose Ave.

For more info: Jan Rushforth: Jan@RushforthSolar.com 610 520 1968 or day of the event: 215 620 6522; or contact Marva Brown: mbrown@lindyproperty.net